| 2. Organ. | 7. Singing. |
| 3. Violin. | 8. Elocution. |
| 4. Viola. | 9. Dancing. |

Any one of the above subjects, other than those printed in italics, may be taken as Principal Study, and by permission of the Principal pupils may also take Elocution or Dancing, but not a Language, as Principal Study.

COURSE OF STUDY.

All pupils are required to take the following Course :—

1. Principal Study.—Two lessons of 30 minutes each per week, the pupil having the privilege of remaining while other lessons are being given.
2. Elements of Music.—One class lesson of 30 minutes.
3. Sight Singing and Aural Training.—One class lesson of 30 minutes.

A Singing Class will be held once a week on condition that a minimum of 10 pupils attend. For this class an extra fee of one guinea per term will be charged.

PUPILS.

No one over 16 years of age will be allowed to remain in the Junior School; but those who have been admitted as pupils will be permitted to complete the Academic Year.

N.B.—The conditions and Course of Study in the JUNIOR SCHOOL being quite different from those of the Senior School, no term or half-term in the Junior Department can be taken in place of any of those which must be kept (or completed) by the Student in the SENIOR SCHOOL.

Pupils are admitted at the beginning of each term or half-term, and before being accepted they are examined by the Principal or Warden. This Examination is merely a test of fitness, and to enable the Principal to make the necessary arrangements for lessons.

The Entrance Fee, which includes the Entrance Examination, is one guinea, which should be sent with the form of application for admission at least three days before the date of the Examination.

Pupils from the Junior School who enter the Royal Academy of Music as Students (see separate Prospectus) will be required to pay a further entrance fee of one guinea.

Pupils in the Junior School will be placed under Teachers who have special experience in the instruction of children. The allotment of pupils to Teachers is left absolutely to the discretion of the Principal.

In order to interfere as little as possible with a pupil's general education, every effort will be made to arrange lessons and classes to meet individual requirements.

It is not desirable that pupils should enter for a shorter period than three terms, nor can they be allowed to take less than the ordinary Course of Study (see page 2).

At least 14 days' notice of the removal of a pupil is required; failing this the fees for a half-term will be forfeited.

The fees, which must be paid in advance or on the first day of each term, are as follows:—
